I. INTRODUCTION

The California Board of Accountancy (CBA) regulates the practice of public accountancy in the State of California and may revoke, suspend, or refuse to renew any permit or certificate for violation of applicable statutes or regulations. The CBA examines applicants, sets education requirements, and may deny licensure and the authority to practice under practice privilege (California Business and Professions Code (BPC) section 5096 et seq.). The CBA may, by regulation, prescribe, amend, or repeal rules of professional conduct appropriate to the establishment and maintenance of a high standard of integrity and competency in the profession.

The CBA, through its Enforcement Division, assisted by its statutorily established Enforcement Advisory Committee, receives and investigates complaints; initiates and conducts investigations or hearings, with or without the filing of a complaint; and obtains information and evidence relating to any matter involving the conduct of Certified Public Accountants (CPA), Public Accountants (PA) and Accountancy Firms. The California Accountancy Act and the CBA regulations provide the basis for CBA disciplinary action. (See BPC sections 5000 et seq., and Title 16 of the California Code of Regulations (CCR) sections 1 through 99.1.)

The expiration, cancellation, forfeiture, or suspension of a license, practice privilege, or other authority to practice public accountancy in California, or the voluntary surrender of a license by a licensee shall not deprive the CBA of the authority to proceed with an investigation, action, or disciplinary proceeding against the licensee or to render a decision suspending or revoking the license. (See BPC section 5109.)

These disciplinary guidelines, designed for the use of Administrative Law Judges (ALJ), attorneys, CBA licensees, and others involved in the CBA's disciplinary process, are revised from time to time. The guidelines cover model orders, including factors to be considered in aggravation and mitigation; standard probationary terms; and guidelines for specific offenses. The guidelines for specific offenses reference the statutory and regulatory provisions violated.

These disciplinary guidelines set forth recommended discipline for the violation of current statutes and regulations; include a provision for community service; and provide additional guidance regarding disciplinary and model orders.

The CBA recognizes that these recommended penalties and conditions of probation are merely guidelines and that mitigating or aggravating ~~circumstance~~circumstances and other factors may necessitate deviations, as discussed herein.

II. GENERAL CONSIDERATIONS

The CBA requests that Proposed Decisions following administrative hearings include the following:

- a. Specific code sections violated with their definitions.
- b. Clear description of the violation.
- c. Respondent's explanation of the violation if ~~he or she is~~they are present at the hearing.
- d. Findings regarding aggravation, mitigation, and rehabilitation where appropriate. (See factors set forth in CCR section 99.1, under section V. Rehabilitation Criteria).
- e. When suspension or probation is recommended, the CBA requests that the disciplinary order include terms within the recommended guidelines for that offense unless the reason for departure ~~there from~~ is clearly set forth in the findings and supported by the evidence.

If the Respondent fails to appear for the scheduled hearing, such action shall result in a default decision to revoke their license.

When the CBA, at a reinstatement hearing, denies a petitioner's request for reinstatement, the CBA requests that the ALJ provide technical assistance in formulating language clearly setting forth the reasons for denial. Such a statement should include, for example, a statement on rehabilitation, including suggestions for further approaches by the petitioner to demonstrate rehabilitation, where appropriate.

- f. Reimbursement to the CBA for costs of investigation and prosecution as warranted by BPC section 5107.
- g. Imposition of an Administrative Penalty if warranted. See section VII for guidance.

The CBA will consider stipulated settlements to promote cost effectiveness and to expedite disciplinary decisions if such agreements achieve its disciplinary objectives. Deputy Attorneys General should inquire as to Respondent's interest in stipulated settlement promptly after receipt of a notice of defense. If stipulated settlement appears unlikely, the case should be set for hearing.

The CBA's policy is that all disciplinary actions will be published.

It is also the CBA's policy that matters resolved by stipulation include cost recovery.

The CBA's Executive Officer is authorized by statute to request an ALJ, as part of any proposed decision in a disciplinary proceeding, to order the recovery of reasonable costs of investigation and prosecution (BPC section 5107). This statute does not preclude the CBA from seeking recovery of costs through stipulations; thus, it does not change the CBA's policy of requesting and recovering costs where appropriate in stipulated settlements. Restitution to victims and/or administrative penalties should not be reasons to reduce, eliminate, or stay full recovery of all reasonable costs of investigation and prosecution.

In stipulated ~~decisions~~settlements involving revocation (no revocation stayed), the order will generally include the requirement that Respondent must reimburse the CBA for all reasonable costs of investigation and prosecution prior to or upon reinstatement of Respondent's revoked certificate under BPC section 5115.

The period of probation is generally three years. During the probation period, licensees are required to appear in person at interviews/meetings as directed by the CBA or its designated representatives to report on probation compliance.

Where an actual suspension is imposed, the order shall include the requirement that the Respondent engage in no activities for which certification is required (see ~~model disciplinary orders~~Model Orders) during the period of suspension. In addition, the Respondent shall relinquish the certificate in question to the CBA and, if directed to do so by the CBA, shall notify clients regarding the suspended status of the certificate.

When discipline includes a violation that can be corrected, correction of the violation should be included as the basis for any discipline.

Restitution should be considered for all cases in which harm is demonstrated against the complainant. However, restitution should consider the actual harm to a complainant; it is not intended to award damages.

III. EVIDENCE IN AGGRAVATION OF PENALTY

The following are among aggravating circumstances to be considered by ALJs in providing for penalties in proposed decisions:

1. Evidence that the violation was knowingly committed and/or was premeditated.
2. ~~Licensee~~The licensee has a history of prior discipline, particularly where the prior discipline is for the same or similar type of conduct.
3. ~~Licensee's~~The licensee's actions resulted in financial damage to ~~his or her~~their clients or other consumers. The amount of loss may be an additional aggravating factor.
4. Violation of CBA probation.
5. Failure to comply with a final citation order.
6. Failure to comply with a notice to appear before the CBA or its designated representatives.
7. Failure to comply with continuing education requirements as ordered by the CBA or its designated representatives pursuant to CCR section 87.5.
8. Evidence that the licensee has not cooperated with the CBA's investigation.
9. Misappropriation of entrusted funds or other breach of fiduciary responsibility.
10. Duration of violation(s).
11. Evidence that the licensee knew or should have known that ~~his or her~~their actions could harm ~~his or her~~their clients or other consumers.
12. Evidence that the licensee took advantage of ~~his or her~~their client for personal gain, especially if the licensee was able to take advantage due to the ignorance, age, or lack of sophistication of the client.

IV. EVIDENCE IN MITIGATION OF PENALTY

The following are among mitigating circumstances that may be taken into account by ALJs in providing for penalties in proposed decisions:

1. The licensee has cooperated with the CBA's investigation, other law enforcement or regulatory agencies, and/or the injured parties.
2. The passage of considerable time since an act of professional misconduct occurred with no evidence of recurrence or evidence of any other professional misconduct.
3. Convincing proof of rehabilitation, including the factors in CCR section 99.1 ~~as well as~~ and other relevant considerations.
4. Demonstration of remorse by the licensee.
5. Recognition by the licensee of ~~his or her~~ their wrongdoing and demonstration of corrective action to prevent recurrence.
6. Violation was corrected without monetary losses to consumers and/or restitution was made in full.
7. If the violation involved multiple licensees, the relative degree of culpability of the subject licensee should be considered.

V. REHABILITATION CRITERIA

When considering the denial of a certificate or permit, the restoration of a revoked certificate, or the reduction of penalty, the burden of proof lies with the individual to demonstrate sufficient competent evidence of rehabilitation to establish fitness to perform public accounting services in a manner consistent with professional standards and public protection.

The CBA's rehabilitative criteria, set forth in CCR section 99.1, are as follows:

- (a) When considering the denial of a certificate or permit under Section 480 of the Business and Professions Code, the suspension or revocation of a certificate or permit under Business and Professions Code Section 5100, or restoration of a revoked certificate or reduction of penalty under Section 5115 of the Business and Professions Code, the board will consider the following criteria:
- (1) Nature and gravity of the act(s) or offense(s).
  - (2) Criminal record and evidence of any act(s) committed subsequent to the act(s) or offense(s) under consideration which also could be considered as grounds for denial, suspension or revocation.
  - (3) The time that has elapsed since commission of the act(s) or offense(s) referred to in ~~subdivisions~~subdivisions (1) or (2).
  - (4) The extent to which the applicant or licensee has complied with any terms of parole, probation, restitution, or any other sanctions lawfully imposed against the applicant or licensee.
  - (5) If applicable, evidence of expungement proceedings pursuant to Section 1203.4 of the Penal Code.
  - (6) Nature and extent of actual and potential consumer harm.
  - (7) The individual's attitude toward ~~his or her~~their commission of the violations.
  - (8) The individual's recognition of wrongdoing.
  - (9) The individual's history of violations.
  - (10) Nature and extent to which the applicant or licensee has taken corrective action to ensure the violation will not recur.
  - (11) Nature and extent of restitution to consumers harmed by violations.
  - (12) Other aggravating or mitigating factors.
  - (13) Evidence, if any, of rehabilitation submitted by the applicant or licensee; however, evidence of rehabilitation does not necessarily result in a finding that the licensee is rehabilitated.

- (b) For purposes of issuing a license to an applicant that has been convicted of a crime, the board will consider the applicant to have made a showing of rehabilitation if the applicant has completed the criminal sentence at issue without a violation of parole or probation.
- (c) If the applicant has been convicted of a crime and did not complete the criminal sentence at issue without a violation of parole or probation, and/or if the applicant has been subject to formal discipline by a licensing board in or outside the State within the seven years preceding the application that was based on professional misconduct that is substantially related to the qualifications, functions or duties of a certified public accountant or public accountant, and that would have been cause for discipline by the Board, unless the discipline was based on a conviction that has been dismissed as specified in Section 480(a)(2) of the Business and Professions Code, the Board will find the applicant to have made a showing of rehabilitation if, in applying its criteria for rehabilitation, set forth in (a)(1)-(13) above, the board finds that the applicant is rehabilitated.
- (d) For purposes of suspending, revoking, or restoring a license, or the reduction of penalty, the Board will consider whether the licensee made a showing of rehabilitation, if the licensee:
  - (1) has completed the criminal sentence at issue without a violation of parole or probation, and/or
  - (2) has demonstrated rehabilitation using criteria set forth in (a)(1)-(13).

VI. REHABILITATION EVIDENCE

The following are examples of types of evidence which the licensee/applicant (Respondent) may submit to the CBA to demonstrate his or her~~their~~ rehabilitative efforts and competency:

- a. Letter from the Respondent describing underlying circumstances of arrest and conviction record as well as any rehabilitation efforts or changes in life since that time to prevent future problems.
- b. Recent, dated written statements or performance evaluations from past and/or current employers or persons in positions of authority who have on-the-job knowledge of the Respondent's current competence in the practice of public accountancy, including the period of time and capacity in which the person worked with the Respondent.
- c. Recent, dated letters or a current mental status examination by a clinical psychologist or psychiatrist regarding the Respondent's participation in a rehabilitation, therapy or recovery program, which should include a diagnosis of the condition or any impairment, current state of recovery, and the psychologist's or psychiatrist's basis for determining rehabilitation. The evaluation should also address the likelihood of similar acts occurring in the future, and should speak to the Respondent's mental capacity and ability to practice public accountancy safely.
- d. Letters of reference from other knowledgeable professionals, such as probation or parole officers regarding the Respondent's participation in and/or compliance with terms and conditions of probation or parole, which should include at least a description of the terms and conditions of probation or parole, and the officer's basis for determining compliance.
- e. Recent, dated letters from outside individuals describing the Respondent's community or volunteer participation in civic activities or support groups (e.g., Alcoholics Anonymous, Narcotics Anonymous, other professional or community-based-support groups).
- f. Documentary or other evidence showing continuing education related to the practice of public accountancy.
- g. Documentary or other evidence showing enrollment in or completion of an advanced degree program. In instances where an individual is petitioning for the reinstatement of a revoked certificate or the reduction of penalty, the enrollment in or completion of an advanced degree program should have occurred after the effective date of the disciplinary order.
- h. Documents that support their financial inability to pay costs, including, but not limited to, financial statements, bank statements and bills when the Respondent is petitioning for a reduction of penalty associated with reducing costs or an administrative penalty.

The CBA will evaluate the sufficiency of the evidence submitted on a case-by-case basis. Any evidence submitted to the CBA will be subject to verification by CBA staff.

VII. ADMINISTRATIVE PENALTIES

BPC section 5116 et seq. allows the CBA to order any licensee or applicant for licensure or examination to pay an administrative penalty as part of any disciplinary proceeding. In matters that go through the administrative hearing process, the CBA's Executive Officer may request an ALJ to impose an administrative penalty as part of any proposed decision.

The administrative penalty assessed shall be in addition to any other penalties or sanctions imposed on the licensee or other person, including but not limited to, license revocation, license suspension, denial of the application for licensure, or denial of admission to the licensing examination. When probation is ordered, an administrative penalty may be included as a condition of probation.

For any violation, with the exception of violation of subdivisions (a), (c), (i), (j), or (k) of BPC section 5100, any licensee may be assessed an administrative penalty of not more than $5,000 for the first violation and not more than $10,000 for each subsequent violation.

For violation of subdivisions (a), (c), (i), (j), or (k) of BPC section 5100, licensed firms may be assessed an administrative penalty of not more than $1,000,000 for the first violation and not more than $5,000,000 for any subsequent violation. The administrative penalty that may be assessed an individual licensee who violates these sections is limited to not more than $50,000 for the first violation and not more than $100,000 for any subsequent violation.

Administrative penalties may be assessed under one or more violations; however, the total administrative penalty shall not exceed the amount of the highest administrative penalty allowed.

The term "violation" used in BPC sections 5116.1, 5116.2, and 5116.3 is intended to include the total violations in the disciplinary proceeding. Accordingly, "first violation" refers to the Respondent's first disciplinary action and "subsequent violations" refers to any subsequent disciplinary actions.

Cost recovery ordered under BPC section 5107 should not be a reason to reduce or eliminate the amount of administrative fines.

The following criteria should be considered in assessing administrative penalties.

1. Nature and extent of actual and potential consumer harm.
2. Nature and extent of actual and potential harm to clients.
3. Nature and severity of the violation.
4. The role of the person in the violation.
5. The person's attitude toward ~~his or her~~their commission of the violations.
6. Recognition of wrongdoing.

7. Person's history of violations.
8. Nature and extent of cooperation with the CBA's investigation.
9. The person's ability to pay the administrative penalty.
10. The level of administrative penalty necessary to deter future violations.
11. Nature and extent to which the person has taken corrective action to ensure the violation will not recur.
12. Nature and extent of restitution to consumers harmed by violations.
13. The violations involve sanctions by other government agencies or other regulatory licensing bodies, i.e. Internal Revenue Service, Securities and Exchange Commission, and Public Company Accounting Oversight Board.
14. Other aggravating or mitigating factors.

VIII. DISCIPLINARY GUIDELINES

The offenses and penalties are listed chronologically by statute number in the Business and Professions Code (BPC) and by regulation number in Title 16 of the California Code of Regulations (CCR). The number in brackets following each condition of probation refers to the model order so numbered (See Model Orders). The probation terms listed under "if warranted" for each violation are to be considered, and imposed, if facts and circumstances warrant.
