CALIFORNIA BOARD OF OCCUPATIONAL THERAPY ANNOUNCES INTERIM EXECUTIVE OFFICER

SACRAMENTO—The California Board of Occupational Therapy (Board) has named Austin Porter as its interim executive officer, effective February 17, 2025.

Mr. Porter has served the Board since 2024 as an office technician, enforcement analyst, and, most recently, as an administrative analyst. In this role, Mr. Porter worked with Board members to produce meeting materials and assist with Board member travel. He also was responsible for numerous administrative functions including coordinating purchasing requests and record keeping.

Prior to state service, Mr. Porter worked for Exotic Plants as a lead installer from 2022 to 2024, for Telus International (now Telus Digital) as technical support and senior product advisor from 2018 to 2020, and for Savemost Insurance Services as a customer service agent from 2017 to 2018.

Mr. Porter has a bachelor's degree in mathematics from California State University, Sacramento.
